Balancing the Earth Books Dan Phillips

Keynote Address

Dan Phillips is founder of Phoenix Commotion, a building initiative in the Huntsville, TX area. He is out to prove that constructing homes with recycled and salvaged materials has a viable place in the building industry. This process uses only apprentice labor and teaches marketable skills to anyone with a work ethic who is willing to swing a hammer. By keeping labor costs low and using donated or found materials, the homes built by Phoenix Commotion are truly affordable. No two are alike due to the myriad of materials used. There is an artistic element that makes Phoenix Commotion homes unique. They target single parents, artists and families with low incomes. The homeowner must be involved with the planning and construction. The result is a person who is empowered, not only by useful knowledge of building skills, but also by the opportunity to become a part of the community as a vested participant.

Join us in the Sherman Municipal Ballroom at 11:00 to see pictures of the houses and hear more about this important work.

We have 125 members this year and have performed several times in the community. Our final concert in May will be at a judged contest and we are proud to be able to participate in the Earth Day Celebration, presenting our contest pieces “Yo Vivo Cantando” by Jerry Estes and “One World” by Albrecht and Althouse.

Tai Chi for Health

Tai Chi is a very old Chinese martial art form dating back to the 12th century CE. It can be thought of as a slow moving meditation. Tai chi is performed slowly, softly, and gracefully with smooth and even transitions in between each movement. You get the same benefits of an aerobic workout without the jarring on the joints, which is great for arthritis. You will learn how to release your stress for better health, improve your balance to help prevent falls, strengthen your muscle and bone mass, relax your mind and body, breathe properly, improve your circulation, flexibility and posture. Tai Chi is also known to lower your blood pressure and help with depression. In recent studies on Tai Chi it has been proven that Parkinson’s and Fibromyalgia patients have made big improvements. Although you would not think so, every movement is for self-defense. You’re never too old to start. Come have ONE FREE CLASS.

Oliver White, Solo Acoustic Show

Oliver White is singer/song writer and has been band leader and guitarist for The Oliver White Group since 2000. He hosts Open Mike Wednesdays at Bubba's Brewhouse in Oak Ridge. He studied at Southeastern Oklahoma State University in 1990 and 1991. Oliver blends elements of blues, rock, folk and funk. The result is Americana music for everyone. Steeped in Texas tradition while being firmly rooted in the banks of the Red River, Oliver's musical style is unique and genuine. Most of Oliver's original material is based on actual events and real people. Some of them are about events that are better left in stories than reality. Stories about people's real problems and hardships, masked by a pleasant tune to keep your head bobbing. Songs of pain. Songs of betrayal. Songs of love. Real songs.

For more information about the Grayson College Visual Art Department’s events please visit their Facebook Page: <https://www.facebook.com/GraysonCollegeVisualArtsDepartment>

Grayson College Visual Arts Department hosts “TRASHION V” a runway style trash fashion show. According to wiseGEEK.com, Trashion is a word which is used to refer to objects and garments produced from discarded, unwanted and leftover items. Trashion encompasses everything from home décor to garments, and public interest in trashion started exploding in the 1990s when being environmentally ethical while staying chic started to come into style. Trashion is considered to be a form of upcycling which refers to repurposing things for new uses, rather than simply getting rid of unwanted objects.

Monarch Waystation

Participants will gain familiarity with the national movement to install resting places for monarch butterflies (Danaus plexippus) in their northward and southward migrations. This beautiful creature has become endangered due to the destruction of habitat. Citizens are making a difference with mindful planting of native vegetation that provide nectar and milkweeds, which host eggs, larval, and pupal stages of the butterfly. Participants learn how they might take part in this movement and participate in sustaining the habitat of a key indicator species.

Linn Cates is a native Texan and a graduate of UT Austin. She was a founder of the Belden Street Montessori School in 1985. After retirement, she became passionate about the prairie. She is a certified Texas Master Naturalist and a tireless worker at the Hagerman Butterfly Garden, a registered Monarch Waystation.

Recycling Dead Laptop Batteries to Create Power Banks

His workshop will be a step by step demonstration on how to take dead laptop batteries and give them a second life as a battery pack to power other devices.

Joey Smith has worked in information technology for over 10 years, serving two public schools in Oklahoma. This summer he decided to reduce his energy footprint by converting his lighting to 12 volt and using solar energy recharge his current lead acid batteries. While searching for a way to optimize his solar setup, he ran across the idea of using dead cells from laptop batteries. Working at two public schools, he had access to many “trashed” batteries. He took
